

Issad Rebrab

President of Cevital, Algeria

Issad Rebrab was born in 1944 in Taguemount-Azouz (wilaya of Tizi Ouzou), he is one of the first Algerians to go into the entrepreneurial world after independence. In 1968, M. Rebrab created his own office of certified public accountant. One of his clients suggested to him to take shares in his company of metallurgic manufacture. In 1971 with the acquisition of 20 % of the capital of a metallurgic manufacture company, Sotecom, he entered the business world and then created other companies in the sectors of metallurgy and steel industry.

He carried out important investments. Since 2008, he has been Chairman of the Board of Directors of Cevital Group which consists of 19 subsidiaries divided into 4 poles : food processing industry, automotive and services, industry and distribution.

Issad Rebrab is the father of 5 children (one girl and four boys), all operating in the management staff of Cevital Group.