

Moosa AL-Moosa

President UAE & Finance Director
India, Middle East, Africa and Turkey
(IMEAT)

Moosa AL-Moosa, is the President for Dow United Arab Emirates and the Finance Director for India, Middle East, Africa and Turkey.

As President, AL-Moosa focuses on enhancing Dow's presence in the UAE – managing Dow's reputation and supporting commercial success in the country. Working with Government Affairs and Public Affairs, he is responsible for building and sustaining relationships with key industry, government and community members that help enable growth for Dow businesses in the UAE.

As finance director for India, Middle East, Africa and Turkey, AL-Moosa leads the finance team and is responsible for all of Dow's finance activities in the region. This includes treasury credit, controllers, tax and investor relations.

In 2005, AL-Moosa joined Dow's Finance function in Midland, Michigan, where he completed a number of assignments across several departments including financial and statutory accounting, cost accounting, tax, auditing, business finance and treasury. In 2007, AL-Moosa joined Dow's Mergers and Acquisitions group with responsibility for leading transaction teams on acquisitions, divestitures and joint venture projects.

Prior to joining Dow, AL-Moosa worked for two years as a buy-side research analyst at Citigroup Asset Management in Stamford, Connecticut where he covered industrial companies. Prior to that, he worked with JP Morgan Chase for two years as a Mergers and Acquisitions Associate in both New York and London. AL-Moosa started his career in 1996 at Deutsche Bank's New York office as a real estate investment banking analyst focused on structured finance transactions.

AL-Moosa has a Masters of Business Administration from the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania and a Bachelor of Arts in economics from Georgetown University in Washington D.C.
