

Mr. Nayaz Qazi
Co-Founder, Chairman
NAIP

Through Nayaz's Chairmanship NAIP enjoys the support of Senior Compliance and Labour Law Authorities, Industry Leaders and Members of Academia within India as well as Internationally including strategic partnerships with the UK's Governing Body the Chartered Institute of Payroll Professional (CIPP) and Al Maktoum Institute.

Managing Director of Mediprep. Mediprep is in partnership with India's leading Medical Training Organisation Medvarsity.

Council Member of the newly formed Women's Inspired Network (WIN). WIN has been established to take an active part in the empowerment of Women in India both in terms of social and economic development and professional recognition. With the significant population of women in India and they key role in both the organized and unorganized sectors, the vision of WIN is to provide improved pathways and support mechanisms to enter the work force as well as for career development opportunities.

Representative of Abu Dhabi University in India.

Advisory Council Member for Arts and Sciences at the American University of Sharjah (AUS).

Council Membership of The Alliance of Infrastructure and Facility Management India (AIFMI), a pan India Organisation providing best practice and knowledge development in all areas of facilities management including the key issues of work force development, supply services

Managing Director of Further and Higher Education Consultants (FHE Consultants), undertaking the role of Senior Advisor to Academic Institutions in the UK from strategic development to quality assurance. Senior Advisor for Strategy and Qualification development to the UK's Chartered Institute of Payroll Professionals (CIPP).

Nayaz is proud to have his preface included in the first edition of the milestone publication about one of India's leading visionaries of the 20th Century Dr Ambedkar in " Ambedkar Speaks" by Dr N Jadhav.